

TONKING THEIR WAY HOME

Aural Sculpture vs Whipps X Path.

Having won the toss and electing to bat, things went badly from the start. Wiskin and Orange both fell for ducks against a slow accurate pace. The artificial turf did nothing to help an ailing start.

Giving way to Newman and Jacobs, things did not pick up until the tenth over, when, barely into double figures, things were looking really bad.

Quick singles and good running proved invaluable, pushing the score on until Jacobs fell. Brown came in tonking his way until a skied top edge brought his downfall. Tredinnick put up a fine stand but the allotted twenty overs passed quickly, leaving Aural Sculpture short of much needed runs. 73 was a bonus given the atrocious start. (continued over)

Since issue 1, three matches have been played; two league and one saturday friendly, taking two defeats and one victory. Match reports follow for the midweek league vs. Whipps Cross Pathology and the saturday friendly vs. The Daily Telegraph. Wednesday's huge victory in the league vs. Hawker Siddeley will be reported in the next bumper issue after Aural Sculpture's historic tour of Sussex over the Bank Holiday weekend of May 1989.

!!!! STOP PRESS !!!!

Tudor Promotions return as a late entry to the league.

Amidst high controversy, Tudor return to haunt many a bowler. At this stage, feelings are strong and a protest of non-play has been suggested by fellow teams. Watch this space.

Whipps Cross made a quick start, racing to 20 without loss when Orange struck. More runs were added until a spell when Aural Sculpture sensed a breakthrough with three wickets falling cheaply.

However, their batting total was simply not enough and albeit pinned down for several overs, Whipps Cross cruised through to reach the target in under 15 overs. All told, the early batting performances were not quite enough against good bowling. Some bright spells, maybe rain later. Ed.

Aural Sculpture vs The Daily Telegraph

Another late start! (once the Bannocks boys had decided who was benefitting from their contribution once again). Aural Sculpture won the toss and went out to bat. What can describe their 'short' performance.

Wiskin	could do better
Orange	has done better
Newman	entering the scorebook respectably, better next time
R Allum	certainly thought he could do better
Brown	well, we hope he soon feels better
Whittington	despite the hangover, was better
Tredinnick	there is evidence he can do better
Jacobs	consistently better
Rawson, Charlton and Hunn	the less said the better

An early tea during which the other big match was watched. Please could someone remember the sugar next time. Back to it hoping they didn't bat as well as they bowled.

There was some problem working out their batsmen. Apparently Alton and Brookman, no Brookman and Alton have now reallocated their fours. They stood up well to a fierce attack from the opening bowlers. Hunn certainly made his mark with catches as well as bowling. He joins the strong bowling line up. There were impressive maidens from Allum and Orange.

The fielding was much tighter, the bowling was more accurate. The boys looked good. However The Daily Telegraph were better and beat the score with eight men.

An unbiased appraisal from the scorer Linda.
